Margin for binding not to be written on.

4. After this petition was presented on 10th September, the case was on the same day adjourned to enable the petitioner and counter-petitioner to adduce evidence in proof of their claims.

5. The question as to whether the petitioner or the Co-Peto is entitled to the certificate claimed is to be decided under section 7 of the Indian Succession Certificate Act, 1889 (VII of 1889). The petitioner claims as undivided father of the deceased and states that the premia due to the New York Life Insurance Company by the deceased were paid out of the joint family assets. If the petitioner does not adduce sufficient proof of his claim, the widow will be entitled to the certificate being a nearer heir to the deceased under the Hindu Law than the petitioner, his father. paras 4 & 5 of Cl 1

The case comes on for hearing on Tuesday the 29th November 1910
